LOCAL NOTES.

Deputy Sheriff Parrish made final proof on his homestead on Tuesday.

Samuel Logan, one of the solid farmers from Siding One is in the city to day.

Jack Allphin was in the county seat Tuesday and returned home on Wednesday's train.

The Eddyville masby was down as a witness for Wm. Wilson on his homestead proof.

Ed Sullivan of Newport, passed out for Salem on Wednesday morning's train.

It looks at this time as though the bid at the recent O. P. sale was a cold blooded job put up to defraud the employees. Will it work?

Wm. Mackey of Corvallis, who has been visiting his daughter, Mrs. James Galtner, at the Siletz, returned to Toledo to day, enroute for home.

The Tillotson brothers are breaking up tideland near town. As an example of what industrious and economical men can do in Oregon, we might add that these two brothers have dyked and reclaimed 70 acres of tideland during the last year and a half.

L. W. Guiliana, Zenas Davis and Oscar Fauno, came up from South Beach on Monday and spent the day with friends and were joined Tuesday morning by Ora Copeland, when all took the train for Victoria, where they will ship on their third sealing expedition.

Supl. Muleahy has issued a bulletin informing the employees that retrenchment to the tune of $6,000 or $7,000 per month must be enforced at once. That's all right. We would respectfully suggest that the first, last and all of the retrenchment be made on the salaries and expense accounts of the receiver, superintendent and attorneys. Chop of the big sponges, the little ones are not soaking up anything.

To the good ladies of Yaquina the LEADER owes an apology for not making mention of the public reading room which has been established in that place by their efforts, and it humbly begs their pardon for overlooking it this long. These energetic ladies have procured and nicely arranged a public reading room where a very pleasant hour may be spent in good associations and surrounding. As far as they are able they furnish all the late books, papers and magazines. Parties having any good books, periodicals, etc., which they feel that they can spare can do a graceful act by sending them to the Yaquina reading room.

The committee of O. P. employees which went to Roseburg to consult with Judge Fullerton, returned on Tuesday and made their reports to the meetings at both Albany and Yaquina, held on Tuesday evening. They reported that the Judge gave them a hearing and also encouragement as far as was in his power. The men have arranged their grievances and will present them to the court next Tuesday through H. H. Hewitt, of Albany, their counsel. The principal things ask for by the men will be that the sale be not confirmed unless the men be paid in full in some manner, and in case the sale is not confirmed that the court remove Receiver Hadly and appoint a receiver which will be favorable to the employees. At the meetings held last Tuesday night some very stringent resolutions concerning the present management were adopted.

We are under obligations to B. P. Jones, for favors shown us this week.

Mrs. C. G. Copeland went out to Corvallis Tuesday returning home Wednesday.

Mrs. W. E. Rich went to Philmath this morning, where she will spend Christmas.

L. W. Wilson, of Chitwood, came down on Wednesday and made final proof on his homestead.

A marriage license was issued on Thursday to Earnest Bobell and Miss Anna Jorgenson of Waldport.

Rev. and Mrs. Hawley left on Wednesday's train for Monroe, Benton Co., where they will spend the holidays.

J. H. Lutz is expected home from Topeka, Kansas, next week where he has been visiting for the past three months.

A feeler has been sent out to the O. P. men to see if they will sell their time to the scalpers. The amount suggested was 35 percent.

M. W. Simpson, Rufus Simpson and E. W. Powers, were down from Elk City Saturday. They are a jolly trio and are always welcome.

You will never regret it, if you come to Grady's opera house, January 3rd and 4th, to see "The Turn of the Tide" played. The popular prices, twenty-five and fifty cents.

Miss May Ball, of Newport, went out to Junction City on Tuesday, to be with her mother who is ill at that place. They expect to return the latter part of the week if Mrs. Ball is able to travel.

Real estate men say Oregon is already feeling the benefits of the World's fair, where the Webfoot state's premium awards show she has the best and richest country on God's footstool. Immigrants are coming in increasing numbers, prepared to help fashion here out of Nature's bountiful gifts the greatest commonwealth represented on the starry banner.

James Carter, the big hearted whole soled section foreman, of Siding One,—may his shadow never grow less,—gathered us in from the way side, and his hospitable and entertaining wife placed before us as fine a dinner as it has been our lot to sample for many a day. Robert Campbell, Lester Waugh, Sheriff Landis and Ben Jones were with us, and it must indeed be a bountiful spread that will feed a fat butcher, a hungry editor and a couple of furnished county officers. Yet the good lady fed many more thereafter.

Drs. Rich, of this place, and Pennot, of Corvallis performed a delicate surgical operation upon the 11-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Garnier, of Siletz, last Sunday evening. The boy has been a sufferer from a running sore on his leg and the bone had become diseased. Some time ago the boy was taken to Portland and operated upon but the diseased bone was not all removed, and hence no great relief was obtained. Dr. Rich administered chloroform to the patient and Dr. Pennot removed the diseased bone. The operation was necessarily a long one and the patient came out from under the influence of the anesthetic before it was completed, but he bore the pain like a little Trojan.

Last Thursday was the twentieth anniversary of Senator and Mrs. Crosno's wedding day. The good people of Toledo gave them a genuine surprise party. Nearly every one in town gathered on the hill near their residence and marched in on the Senator and family. Charley was toasting his feet by a hard wood fire and per chance was reviewing the past twenty years of his married life, and no doubt realizing that he would soon pass the half way point and turn down the other side, for with the youngest of us life's morn will soon be waning. However, Charley and his splendid wife soon made every one at home, and as all came to enjoy themselves and have a good time no one stood on ceremonies, but all seemed bent on having a regular old fashioned good time. Cards, wit and songs were indulged, a splendid lunch was served, and twelve o'clock came only too soon. When after all had wished the bride and groom many more happy years of married life, all took their way to their respective homes, feeling that they had had a very enjoyable evening. The event will be a bright spot in the memory of those who were present.

Considerable excitement was created in our quiet village last Saturday morning by a sensational report from the vicinity of Storrs that a young lady had been found in the middle of the night tied hand and foot. Upon investigation the matter seems to be explained in this way: The young lady was Miss Cora Mays, aged about sixteen, and is a victim of somnambulism, or sleep walking. It appears that she arose in her sleep about one o'clock at night and left the house after putting on an old wrapper and throwing her brother's rubber coat about her shoulders and tying it around her waist with some waste rope. She got into the skiff and crossed the river, letting the boat go adrift when she landed, then she went up the railroad track about a half mile until she came to a cattle guard. It is supposed that she must have fallen in this guard which bruised her head and awoke her. She was so much frightened that her wits deserted her and she staggered up to Mr. Pym's house, which is near by where she was found and cared for. The wild rumors of assault etc., are entirely without foundation.

We visited our public school Wednesday afternoon, and it was with a feeling of pride that we cast our eyes over the school room and saw the well filled seats of neat, orderly, rosy checked boys and girls. From this school last year was graduated twelve scholars, of which one holds a second grade certificate, five hold third grade certificate. Three have already taught in the public schools of our county. This certainly is a splendid record for our school. The average attendance at present is 43 in Prof. Bether's room and 27 in Miss Gaither's room. We noticed that a few more seats were needed, and also a chair and stand or desk for the teacher and a window light or two. However, as there is now a reasonable prospect of getting our delinquent taxes these wants, and a couple of new stoves, may soon be added which will give more comfort to our boys and girls. Our citizens are justly proud of their school building. And under the able and efficient corps of teachers our children are being well cared for. The public schools are the very foundation of our American form of government, therefore, everyone should be a firm friend to our public schools.

DIED.

LEWIS.—At Salem, Oregon, on Saturday, December 16, 1893, Mrs. Alice Lewis, wife of Henry Lewis, of this city.
